

The Character Building Process

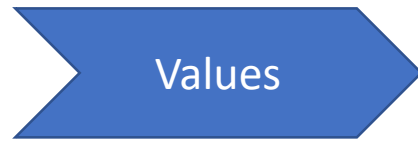

The Spiritual Character Building Process

Purpose

Our Why – To become a member of the family of God; which prioritizes seeking the Kingdom of God and His righteousness above all else

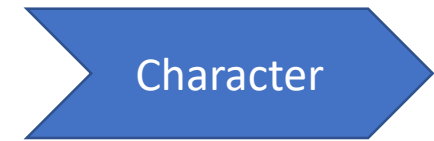

Values

How The values we live our life by are embodied in the fruits of the spirit

Actions

What the actions of our life are an expression of the law. We no longer treat the law as a set of “to-dos” rather it is an expression of who and what we are.

Character

Repeated actions become habits which form the basis of who and what we are (character)

Connection to God

Supporting this whole process is our connection to our Father through Jesus Christ. It is through this connection to our Father that Christ lives His life in us.
